David Declares Christ

29-Jul-07

Dear Peter,

In reading your E-mails, your style of logic and communication, your subtle deceptions, and your idolatrous approach to religion all reminds me of another communicator whom my light has exposed as a deceiver in my past. That person assumed the alias E-mail address of Nycusa, or New York City, USA. Nycusa also elevated personal, albeit supernatural, communications above the Word of God. My suspicion, even though I know the world is full of such idolatrous people, is that you and Nycusa are one and the same person.

Jesus said, “Search the Scriptures for in them you think you have eternal life and they are they who testify of me” —John 5:39. He also said, “The words that I speak unto you, they are spirit, they are life” —John 6:63. Notice here: Christ does not mention dreams nor direct voices, but the words which He delivered to the disciples to be the source of our spirituality and our life. Thus, all who did not grow to embrace His full testimony, including Peter, Paul, EGW, VTH, etc, could not help but to go through the grave according to the Testimony of Jesus (His 3 ½-year ministry). Thus does Christ, speaking clandestinely through Jesus says, “Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that believeth on me hath everlasting life” —John 6: 47. Notice He does not make the claim that such believers who embrace “the fullness of the doctrine of Christ” will be rewarded with merely natural life, interrupted by death, then become resurrected to life again. Instead, His promise to those men who believe His entire testimony are to receive life without ceasing, everLASTING life. Today all, regardless of race, are invited to receive this gift. He continues to say, “I am the living bread which came down from heaven: if any man eat of this bread, he shall live for ever...”—John 6: 51. For a final reference to make my point — though many more could be cited— I quote the Testimony of Jesus again, “Verily, verily, I say unto you, if a man keep my sayings, he shall never see death” —John 8: 51. It is obvious that His messages were given to promote everlasting life. Yesterday’s prophets could not embrace the fullness of His word because He had not unveiled it from the Bible fully —only partially— until now. Thus did Christ say on various occasions that He would raise His word up and His messenger to deliver it, in the last day, today, the time after 911 as proven by the MSC from Scripture. All others in the NT epoch, according to Paul and Christ, only prophesied that which they could bear; they all prophesied in part while looking for the perfect day. Therefore, you must ask the voice which whispers in your head why he, in Luciferian fashion, subtly seeks to contradict and countervail the Words of Christ. Remember, in heaven, Lucifer deceived 1/3 of the angelic host by merely suggesting that Christ was not a just and righteous ruler, that He could not be trusted. You desire the MSA to slip into the same trap as did those formerly holy angels by casting aside the Words of Christ, His direct testimony from the Father, and replace those themes with a testimony delivered to you, without any scriptural reference, in the form of a dream —what anti-Christian folly! If EGW could demand, as the most dominant theme of her work, that we measure her clearly inspired writings by the Bible and if VTH could do the same, then why would any fail to do the same with your non-scriptural communications from your god. The answer is subtle, yet it is very clear: your god, like Lucifer before the fall, wants me to distrust the Word. You wrote the following:

I was dreaming last night about your work and the message...

Part of your work (according to my dream) is incorrect and you must read your message again. A small part was inspired and the rest were not. In time you will notice the errors and will be able to correct them. The Lord showed me that you are not the last messenger. You will be used to help (others) spread the Lords message. —Your E-mail, Thursday, July 26, 2007 2:15 PM, Parenthesis belong

Nycusa, again quoting personal testimony from the Lord, made a very similar prophecy predicting a few years back that the MSC would never grow. This was just before the MSA had the largest growth spurt ever in faithful believers. In fact, merely going by the increase on its mailing list of attentive readers, grew from a few readers well into triple digits. This does not include its E-mail list, its committed believers, and its tithe payers. Now, my wife and I are made joyous again by your letter: we anticipate yet another major growth spurt as the Lord rewards our faith for again rebuffing your non-scriptural-based counsel as we did with Nycusa. You say part of my work is inspired, and to correct the other portions, I must re-read my work again. Would not the Lord demand that I read (search) the Scriptures to correct my errors? Then you say the following:

“...The last part (of my dream) was that I must inform you that you are not David. Do not be alarmed...”—Your E-mail, Thursday, July 26, 2007 2:15 PM, Parenthesis added.

To describe the son of David, I refer you to the statements which Christ made with the sincere hope that you can, in turn, find the courage to use the tactic which the successful, unfallen angels employed allowing them to resist the promptings of Lucifer. He said,

“...I will set up one shepherd over them, and he shall feed them, even my servant David; he shall feed them, and he shall be their Shepherd. And I the Lord will be their God, and my servant David a prince among them; I the Lord have spoken it”—Ezekiel 34: 23, 24.

These words were spoken by Christ; thus, all who behold them are faced with a true dichotomy: should we believe these words or should we fall from grace and impeach His word as do the Luciferian Christians today. Christ says that David will emerge to feed the flock. He will be the highest on earth under Christ. David will rule as a teacher who enlightens the flock. Many other text could be used to fortify this point, but expediency demands that I merely cite one other text:

“Now these be the last words of David. The Spirit of the Lord spake by me, and his word was in my tongue. The God of Israel said, the Rock of Israel spake to me, He that ruleth over men must be just, ruling in the fear of God. And he shall be as the light of the morning when the sun riseth, even a morning without clouds; as the tender grass springing out of the earth”
—2 Sam 23: 1-4

Again we are forced, from the writ of Scripture, to conclude that David’s purpose is to teach and enlighten, “he is to be as the light of the morning”, a light which chases away the obscurity of dawn and slowly becomes more intense in its brilliance. Armed with this foreknowledge, we must discern that all in the SDA church, according to Rev 12, Rev 14, Isa eight, etc; who will escape the slaughter of Ezek nine will do so by receiving and embracing the Testimony of Jesus, which he delivers. For, while speaking of the metaphor of the sun rise, Christ said, “and this is the will of him that sent me, that every one which seeth the Son, and believeth on him, may have everlasting life and I will raise him up at the last day”—John 6:40. Not only did Christ promise to us a rising light in the end of time, one who will point the faithful to His word, but He also, in that very same life-preserving testimony, says that a faithful and wise steward will be promoted to rule His entire house when He, Christ, invisibly returns (see Luke 12:42-44). That servant will be promoted to give His flock “meat in due season”. He continues in Luke 12 to give even more detail: He promised that His faithful steward is promoted at the Lord’s return because he is, beforehand, found to be faithfully feeding the Lord’s flock new light. He gives even more insight into that man’s work, his identity, and his faithfulness: Christ, in another unrelated text, told His disciples to expect that one singular man who himself is to be a disciple is to emerge to greatness from among them. He commanded His disciples telling them exactly how they should respond to that one special disciple. The Lord said that, rather than resist his work as they resisted the sons of Zebedee, that they should let that man become their minister, or, to put it another way, let him feed them meat in due season, present truth. Then, having said these things, Christ points to His own work to exemplify the work of this faithful and wise steward: He said, “...Whosoever will be great among you, let him (not the voices in your head) be your minister, even as the Son of man came not to be ministered unto, but to minister...”—Matt

20:23-28. Consequently, by the very reliable Testimony of Jesus, the statements made by Him during His ministry for 3 ½ years (AKA: the righteousness of Christ), we have the words which are to win for us life and rescue us from the looming slaughter of Ezek nine. We furthermore see from that testimony that both of the men whom the Lord describes, the faithful and wise steward and the “prime minister”, are to emerge in order to feed the Lord’s people; thus, both men described by Jesus must be the same person. Being that all feed the Lord’s flock, they could be none other than the promised son of David described in Ezek 34 and many other Old-Testament text, for he is promised to do the same. And since, even the dark anti-christ voice in your head admits that some of the MSC’s work is inspired, and Nycusa also acceded to this point, we must receive this admission to conclude even from that non-scriptural source that the MSC is now, by the impress of inspiration, feeding God’s flock. But we do not need your dark shadows to affirm that the MSC represents the voice of David, we merely need to examine its work. It points the faithful back to the sayings of Jesus —the key indication to identify the prime minister and the Comforter’s presence:

“These things have I SPOKEN (testified) unto you, BEING YET PRESENT WITH YOU. But the Comforter...he shall teach you all things, and bring all things to your remembrance, WHATSOEVER I HAVE SAID UNTO YOU” —John 14:26.

None today give new and clear insight into the nature of Christ and Jesus, declaring His name, while pointing the saints back to the words of Christ except the MSA. Thus its leader must be none other than David for the Lord, speaking of David’s son, said the following: “I will set up thy seed after thee, which shall proceed out of thy bowels and I will establish his kingdom. He shall build and house for my name and I will stablish the throne of his kingdom forever”—2 Sam 7: 12,13. “...I have sworn unto David my servant. Thy seed will I establish forever...my faithfulness and my mercy shall be with him: and in my name shall his horn be exalted”—Ps 89: 3,4,24. I challenge you to find another movement which has clarified the identity of Christ, has pointed Zion back to His testimony, the messages in which He spoke, while he was yet with the disciples 2000 years ago, and has delivered inspired and irrefutable light from the Scriptures and the SOP. Since you cannot, you must trash the voices in your head and embrace the rising light of the MSC. Why not come to this fountain today and let the Lord’s prime minister enlighten you. As I told Nycusa two years ago, by the Lord’s grace, I will free you also from all of the Devil’s which haunt you with their speech and their Halloween nightmares that you call dreams. If you give your heart to the Lord, then I will in turn cast him (Satan) out so that you may freely receive the Lord’s life preserving testimony. Until then, the following questions must be answered: (1) Why should the MSC cease its work of declaring the righteousness of Christ? (2) What Scripture condemns the MSC for so doing? (3) To whom can we turn to for an alternate light? If your god was truthful, then instead of insisting that I reread my work which he calls erroneous, he would instead have given you the answer to these three questions in order to correct the MSC. He did not because he well knows that there are no other voices that unfold and explain the life-saving Testimony of Jesus. Truly, there are many who teach the Rod, but the Rod by itself, could not even save the lives of its greatest teachers from yesterday, VTH and then MJ Bingham. It was sent, based on scriptural testimony, merely so that “the Man of Wisdom” could discern the Lord’s name, the key focus of the MSC.

To close, in the past month, you have, in a style similar to Nycusa years back, written several E-mails —not asking for literature or seeking greater understanding, nor even citing criticisms, but— asking about the MSA’s numbers and attempting to seduce it with the prospects of receiving your tithing. This may seem unbelievable, but the MSC is driven by truth and not by money. So long as you ignore the Word of God and, in its stead, promote the voices in your head, the MSA can never accept your tithe. It refused to corrupt its meager coffers with such dirt. Therefore, please do not write the MSA again using your tithe as some cheap enticement or lure; I am not interested. Our numbers are not large; however, all who participate in that stewardship have a genuine love for Christ and His word; they have no sympathies for, or trust in, Lucifer's subtle recriminations about the Bible; and their interest is in building God's kingdom. The tithing was designed to advance God's work, not to soil and tarnish it. When you allow the Lord to clean your hands and your heart, by hoisting His word above your head, then you can join in with the others to help in the advance His work. Until then, as long as the "highway of holiness" is still open to Davidia, I will continue by the Lord's prompting to extend to you counsel and prayer. I will do so without any remuneration.

Sincerely,

Derek
