Hell's Criminal co-Conspirators

Johnathan,

You said the following:

"Why do you think that your spin on the word is the right way? No, I think the Bible does just fine, thank you very much, msa" — Your E-mail, Thursday, December 03, 2009 4:00 PM

Did not the Bible promise that the Lord would send you a teacher whom Christ would raise up in the last day? A teacher is necessary to reverse the "spin" which sinners have put on the Bible and have accepted as truth. Therefore, that which you call spin is merely Bible-substantiated evidence. Are you not aware of the promised "faithful and wise steward", the "single eye", the prime minister or the greatest disciple, the Moses to judge, the greatest in the Kingdom, etc? Are you upset because God has proven that He keeps His word, literally, or are you jealous because His light does not affirm your pride? Remember, "except ye be converted, and become as little children, ye shall not enter into the kingdom of heaven. Whosoever therefore shall humble himself as this little child, the same is greatest in the kingdom of heaven" —Matt 18: 3, 4.

It was suggested to you that you should go back and re-read the document which answers your question, Prophecy and the Single Eye, Part III. Instead of saying, "I read it already" or "once is enough" you called it spin. Thus, your reply proves that you do not read answers to your questions. Therefore, you are rendered a charlatan and a pretender. One who only asked questions —not to uncover answers, but— to spread discord amongst the brethren. The E-mail that you were pointed to resoundingly proves that Father did not come down and declare the law at Sinai 3500 years ago. Having never read that document, your question is vain and presumptuous. Consequently, none should ever take your questions seriously; you refuse to read the answers to them. This I have observed for more than three years: any doctrine that is not swimming in your head or the head of the Female-Branch-Davidian thinkers who dominate your perspective must, at all cost, be rejected by you. This is because, as has been proven from prior E-mails, you and your Branch comrades are true idolaters, people who actually consult with "spirit guides". These ghosts or voices in your heads who affirm to you the doctrine of the female holy spirit, those wizards who mutter and peep, cannot stand against the Word; therefore, they draw you away from it as well. They feed to you and affirm to you your doctrine making you hell's criminal co-conspirator. Then, ever fearful of being embarrassed that you are being duped by devils, and ever careful to avoid being shamed by your spiritual degradation, you fight the light to protect your pride; you refuse the child conversion mandate.

All should be reminded that any doctrine affirmed to them by unidentifiable voices should be proven by the Bible before being lauded or accepted. Do not vest your salvation in any alternate channels of doctrines.

May Christ judge you for your crimes.

Derek
