March in Rank

Dave,

You sent a letter from Michael Allen. My question is, has Michael Allen read the work that I have written about vegetarianism? If not, then why would any waste their time reading his counter arguments to my work? “Woe to thee...when thou shalt make an end to deal treacherously, they shall deal treacherously with thee.” —Isa 33: 1.

Please remind him of the website address so that he can duly search out the MSA’s position on this question. If he lives by a standard of ignorance refusing to receive Bible evidence, then nothing that I write or in this case, rewrite, to answer his arguments will be read by him. Christ described the prophet-declaring Davidians of this day, men who think that they are prophesying in His name, and he calls them fools. Why, not because they did not know the story of the garden of Eden—you can guarantee, but— because they ignored His life-saving, three-and-one-half year Testimony reiterated and made plain today. It, not the testimony given in the Garden, was sent to save humanity. Had not this testimony been given, then the world would not have been inundated by Christ-declaring disciples, and the world would have absolutely no knowledge of the Genesis story. He said, “...Every one that heareth these sayings of mine, and doeth them not, shall be likened unto a foolish man, which built his house upon the sand;” —Matt 7: 26. Salvation comes by Christ’s sayings, His testimony.

Bottom line for all Adventists, vegetarian enthusiasts is not their love for the Edenic diet but their love for the writings of EGW above the Word. They seek to honor their proverbial deceased lieutenant above their living General. They do not understand rank, and refuse to recognize Christ’s authority. The righteous will not do this; instead, they will be “...a great people and a strong; there hath not been ever the like...They shall march every one on his ways, and they shall not break their ranks...” —Joel 2: 2, 7.

I will distribute this reply to the group. They can choose to read his attachment or not. I refuse because the Lord commands the honest to come to this fountain, this “witness”, to receive their Bread. It is not to be taught through an intermediary. Father seeks children—not grandchildren. Of course the brethren can study independently with others; however, all who abide in righteousness, the wise, will eventually study this fountain on their own. Michael can call me; he has had opportunities to visit my seminars and personally address to me his concerns; he can go to my website. These things he refuses to do demanding that intermediaries answer his objections— foolish indeed especially because he holds in the balance the lives of his large family. If he refuses to be a priest to them, he must resolve to pay for that decision.

Sincerely,

Derek
