Eyes and Ears of Discernment

Dear Brother Thomas,

From reading your E-mail, I suspect that you are a former Seventh-day Adventist (SDA), one who now has not only become there from detached but who also greatly opposes their work and their code of conduct in the “Lord’s vineyard”. Your E-mail messages to me do not give a complete dossier on your theological history; thus, I am led to conjecture.

Though both of our stances regarding the SDA Church may tenuously share some common ground, I feel that your expressed opposition is not based upon wisdom. You wrote to me with several invectives and indictments against both the SDA Church and EGW. You ended by warning me of the hazards of my support for the work of EGW and the SDA Church. You wrote the following:

“May you have eyes to see and ears to hear before it is too late and you stay in the house that will be burnt up with Babylon.” —Your E-mail, 25-May-2016, 1: 39PM.

If I were to make it my purpose to defend against your charges as you continue in your zeal to impeach the divine certification of EG White and the SDA Church, it would become an exercise in futility —especially when done by E-mail. Defense of merely EGW, with her vast history, presents a debate, the litigation of which is, too expansive for any man to encompass and contravene. There are simply too many rocks of distortion and mountains of erroneous logic under which dishonest men can gleefully flee and hide as they seek to dodge the truth of her inspiration. Are you honest? —only time will tell! And, if a defense of EGW were ever to be attempted, there are few, if any, who are willing to give the volumes of contradicting evidence the necessary, objective reading or attentive study to clear her name. In final analysis, just as described in the Sixth Seal of Revelation Six, such men who masquerade themselves as servants of God, rather than humbly admitting their error, prefer, instead, to run to the rocks to hide their faces. But lest you should be tempted to use my reluctance to engage you in a contentious argument as an ego prop, presuming yourself to be triumphantly vindicated, I issue to you a precaution: God has given to me a different tactic in order to uphold the arm of EGW’s divine inspiration. He has also given me the ammunition to defend His Church; and, in faithfully so doing, it, Zion, has, in turn become my divine inheritance (See Isa 58, Isa 55: 3, Isa 65: 9, 2Sam 7: 11-16, Ps 89, Luke 12, etc.). So, recognizing the futility of the debate, I meekly bow away from your challenge to defend Adventism.

Eyes and Ears of Discernment

Yet, it must be said that, quite miraculously, in the days of my vociferous advocacy, I have already upheld their calling and the prophetic work of EGW; I have done so in merely 63 pages (the 63-page paper that I have already sent to you). So my meek reply is ratified because of your refusal to read that document. Why should I prepare another document of advocacy to answer your objections merely to watch you also ignore it? My ministry teaches that time is up for such exchanges in theology; after two thousand years of Christian evangelism, we have entered into the dawn of a new day. The hour has arrived whereby the fate of Adventists, that is, their standing in the judgment, has already—again as shown by the opening of the Sixth Seal—been settled for eternity. I am only writing to you because I perceive you to be a non-Adventist bystander and observer—perhaps a discharged Adventist—one who has directly expressed a desire for a doctrinal discourse with me. But you fail to discern my orientation: It is of little consequence to me if, as you assert and claim, all of the rebels in Adventism are soon to be destroyed when that house is judged. My love has been redirected: It is extended to the righteous therein contained, those who shall be preserved and shall remain by passing in the judgment hour. Again, they will then be shrouded under my dominion (See Gen 1: 26-28, Gen 32: 27-31, Matt 16: 17-19, John 6: 27, 40-46, Rev 1: 1-3, etc). In a nutshell, your indictments of condemnation for the SDA Church is unwise because, Father, rather than abandoning His church, has chosen an alternate plan, one that you have failed to consider: He will choose to remove the “tares”:

“Satan will work his miracles to deceive; he will set up his power as supreme. The church may appear as about to fall, but it does not fall. It remains, while the sinners in Zion will be sifted out—the chaff separated from the precious wheat. This is a terrible ordeal, but nevertheless it must take place. None but those who have been overcoming by the blood of the Lamb and the word of their testimony will be found with the loyal and true, without spot or stain of sin, without guile in their mouths. We must be divested of our self-righteousness and arrayed in the righteousness of Christ.” —EG White, 2 Selected Messages, p.381.

Amazing indeed!—EGW, the woman whom you repudiate, affirms your fatalistic prediction for the SDA Church: She says the sinners in Zion will fall. Were you ignorant of this expressed prophetic condemnation? Did your Eyes and Ears of Discernment betray you? If so, then your denunciation of her must be construed to be the predicate of stupidity; it exposes you as a fool, a man devoid of wisdom? Why?—because in essence, you reject her because she agrees with you! How does my work fit into this equation? It does so wisely and without foolishness for ‘the wise man builds his house upon the Rock,’ upon Christ. As EGW demanded, I am “arrayed in the righteousness of Christ”. Correspondingly, I spend energy defending and proclaiming Christ’s righteousness and His testimony—not that of EGW—just as her above quote recommends. Paul agrees: “And did all drink the same spiritual drink: for they drank of that spiritual Rock...that Rock was Christ” —1Cor 10: 4. More about my ministry: EGW claims, as the Bible proves, that the sinners in the church will be destroyed and the righteous will remain. I must now await the day of my reception of the righteous members therein contained whether they come forward by resurrection or conversion—the rebels I am content are to be damned. Maybe it is not too late for you. If you refuse to read that 63-page document which Vinnette, my helpmeet, sent to you entitled, Prudent Poly-Peter Antics, a document which miraculously answers and/or refutes all of your objections, then their shame will also fall upon you. Thus, if reading is difficult, I can send a Read-aloud connection for your listening.

I must further say that it is absolutely no matter of any consequence to me if you disdain the work and the reputation of EG White for an expanded reason: I can reach the heart of an honest man merely with the WISDOM of her election by God despite those claims that you launch against her. This wisdom is a thing that foolish men have heretofore failed to discern. The wisdom is that the entire focus of her work was devoted to pointing the church to the Bible, again, Christ’s Righteousness. This fact alone, regardless of all other objections, vindicates her license as a prophet. She adjured the church to search the Scriptures so as to forge a basis of all doctrine. This was her divinely inspired message. Consider below just one reference out of many others:

The Mustard Seed Advent, 26-May-2016

“Our watchword is to be: ‘To the law and to the testimony: if they speak not according to this word, it is because there is no light in them.’ Isaiah 8:20. We have a Bible full of the most precious truth. It contains the alpha and omega of knowledge. The Scriptures, given by inspiration of God, are ‘profitable for doctrine, for reproof, for correction, for instruction in righteousness: that the man of God may be perfect, thoroughly furnished unto all good works.’ 2 Timothy 3:16, 17. Take the Bible as your study book. All can understand its instruction.”

“I call upon our ministers, physicians, and all church members to study the lessons that Christ gave His disciples just before His ascension. These lessons contain instruction that the people need.” —EG White, Testimonies for the Church, Vol 8, p. 299.

Please note: She does not point any to her work but to the lessons of Christ and to the Bible. To reject this mission of hers is to resultingly reject the Bible. The instructions from her pen which mandates Bible primacy has been given to the SDA believers; in view of this fact, if they are to fall as you predict, it will be because they, like you, have rejected her appeal and sought alternate mediums, “wizards that mutter and peep” —Isa 8: 19— as the foundation of their doctrines. Yet, I will not repel against your ministry so long as your claim is much akin to that of mine: The SDA Church ignores the Bible. But be it ever so clear, they ignore it because they did not heed the inspired admonitions of EGW.

But now you must become consumed about the destiny of your followers and yourself: If you reject the above statement of Bible primacy from her, then your qualm is with the Lord’s reputation, He who authored the Scriptures. Again, if you did not have this perspective, then it is a question of your wisdom —not EGW’s honor. In this, I mean to say the following: For any to disagree and call her work a deception could only mean one of two things:

1) They foolishly rejected her based upon the reports of others, of men

“...filled with all unrighteousness...wickedness, covetousness, maliciousness...envy...debate, deceit, malignity; whisperers...inventors of evil things...who knowing the judgment of God, that they which commit such things are worthy of death...” —Rom 1: 29-32.

2) Or, they reject EGW because they hate the Lord, the Author of the Bible, and they instead seek an alternate channels of light for doctrines.

“And when they shall say unto you, Seek unto them that have familiar spirits, and unto wizards that peep, and that mutter: should not a people seek unto their God?... To the law and to the testimony: if they speak not according to this word, it is because there is not light in them.” —Isa 8: 19, 20.

I have proven with many references from EGW that her most pervasive and dominant theme is that the church should source the Bible for doctrines. I have listed many in my publications further explaining why I say, the debate is “too expansive for any man to encompass and contravene”. Besides, the Lord has given me better issues to address; I am through debating with ignorant Adventists.

Leaving the issue of EGW’s doctrinal orientation, you raised another question. You suggest —no doubt from a muttering and peeping wizard— that the words of instruction given to us have been borrowed from someone else. My paper, the one that you evidently refuse to read, resoundingly refutes that claim. Whether your charge be true or not, the Lord has given me too much “wisdom” to exhaust energy deliberating over such an issue. I will not revert to yesterday’s mantra so as to argue the evidence here. But I will just simply say, that if your claim is true, then —whoever are the sources of her admonition— they have given us wisdom and a reason to celebrate her work all the more! Consider a simple anecdote to defeat your logic: A man purchases her books, Testimonies for the Church, volumes one through nine (Books, by the way, unchallenged in their originality). As he cracks them open and begins to read, he makes a discovery. To his great joy, he finds hundred-dollar bills randomly spread throughout those —nearly 5000— pages. If EGW herself did not therein put that blessing, then who cares? The money becomes a blessed reward from God to those who faithfully honor heaven's inspired work.

The Bible often expresses this very blessing of Bible foundation. John said, "Blessed is he that readeth...the words of this prophecy..." —Rev 1: 3. Coming from God, the man of faith can very well believe that the blessing promised in this Text far exceeds monetary reward for, "He that overcometh shall inherit all things..." —Rev 21: 7. Also, the Lord said much of the same: "Who then is that faithful and wise steward, whom his lord shall make ruler over his household, to give them their portion of meat in due season? Blessed is that servant...he will make him ruler over all that he hath" —Luke 12: 42-44. One more: The Lord, rather than honoring the 12 disciples, extended the honor to those who read their work. He said, "Blessed are the eyes which see the things that ye see...and to hear those things which ye hear..." —Luke 10: 23, 24. The one hundred dollar bill is a metaphor; the blessing scattered in the pages of her work is the call to upgrade our doctrines with the Bible to receive its reward. This is indeed a blessing to those who love the Lord and His word. We can rest assured that the devil did not place those gems in her writings.

The MSC establishes all of its light from the Bible —just as commissioned by EGW. And it is now spiritually, very wealthy. Again, I contend that you do not have the same appreciation because you are not a wise man; your house has been erected upon the words of deceitful, maligning whisperers, wizards who mutter and peep. But this faithful and wise steward, destined to be made ruler over the Christian movement, will patiently await his/my day of honor...I will not be destroyed with Babylon.

In your E-mail, you went further to tarnish even your own scholarship. You lamented over your claim that the SDA Church is paying homage to the Ecumenical Movement and hence to the Papacy. I do not, for reasons explained already, need to challenge the veracity of your claim. But if true, then such a transgression could only stem from their refusal to heed EG White's most dominant theme to, again, "secure all doctrines from Scripture." I have done my work to denounce the sins of the SDA Church; now I look forward to harvesting the 144,000, Jerusalem, the sons of America's former slaves who now theologically reside in the non-SDA, Sunday-keeping churches. But, in a nutshell, the synopsis of the church is that they have turned their back on the Bible. And many of the sins have not even been revealed to you.

“...These sighing, crying ones had been HOLDING FORTH THE WORDS OF LIFE; they had reproved, counseled, and entreated...”

“In the time when His wrath shall go forth in judgments, these humble, devoted followers of Christ will be distinguished from the rest of the world by their soul anguish, which is expressed in lamentation and weeping, reproofs and warnings.”

“The abominations for which the faithful ones were sighing and crying were all that could be discerned by finite eyes, but by far the worst sins, those which provoked the jealousy of the pure and holy God, were unrevealed. The great Searcher of hearts knoweth every sin committed in secret by the workers of iniquity. These persons come to feel secure in their deceptions and, because of His long-suffering, say that the Lord seeth not, and then act as though He had forsaken the earth. But He will detect their hypocrisy and will open before others those sins which they were so careful to hide.” —

EG White, Testimonies for the Church, Vol 5, pp. 210, 212, 213.

The mustard seed, is the chief of the sighing and crying ones. Indeed, I have Eyes and Ears of Discernment. This we know because my work is the only work in history that promotes the Words of Life —which in essence is Jesus' claim that compliance to His testimony wins everlasting life. Remember, He said, "Verily verily, I say unto you, If a man keep my saying, he shall never see death" —John 8: 51. To laud this declaration, words from the Highest, is to 'hold forth the words of life'. You too can have this life; you need merely to embrace it.

But back to your issue of lamentations, I furthermore also have no reason to argue against your assertion for, if your claim of ecumenical cooperation in the leadership circles of the SDA Church is true, then it is a manifestation that she, the SDA Church, has been penetrated by Jesuits, deceivers who are co-conspirators with the Illuminati, again wizards who mutter and peep. They know that the SDA Church, as of now, is a shelter from the devil's wrath, a place to which their escaping former adherents may flee to find protection. It is the proverbial hedge of protection that encircled Job. They closely guard this truism along with all of their other secrets because they do not want the world to know that freedom from Satan is in the land. For if their adherents uncover the fact that there is an escape from the occult, they will leave the lodges in droves aspiring for protection heretofore unperceived by them. In a nutshell, they will find that their sworn oath to Masonry, has met Bible fruition: It says, "Therefore thus saith the Lord God, Behold, I lay in Zion for a foundation a stone, a tried stone...Judgment also will I lay to the line, and righteousness to the plummet:...And your covenant with death shall be disannulled, and your agreement with hell shall not stand..." —Isa 28: 16-18. Therefore, the Lord seeks to conceal infiltration by the devil's secret orders: Not only does He not want His place of refuge to be challenged causing men to say there is no protection anywhere in the land, but He also does not desire the embarrassment to be heaped upon Himself and heaven at a time before Shiloh, Goliath's end-time slayer, the ordained defender to Christianity, can blossom.

In a nutshell, the SDA Church, be it ever so corrupt is the only shelter from the murderous designs of masonry. So long as Jesus' ordained candlestick of Adventism shall stand, Satan cannot penetrate its protection so as to punish those men who therein seek refuge. This protection explains the reason why so many Hollywood actors and actresses become Adventists. Many former members of the occult even now seek refuge in that house. Those who do so genuinely and those who do so pretentiously must be judged by the work of the Lord's tried stone. Consequently, it is not now the Lord's desire to make Zion to fall with Babylon as you suggest.

But, as indicated by EGW's above statement, some within the church, her highest leaders, have clandestinely joined masonry and the Illuminati to gain power and prestige. In so doing, they perform the vilest of sins, sins such as human sacrifice, pedophilia, bestiality, Sodomy, sexual orgies, etc. —the least of which is the sin that has piqued your ire, ecumenical participation. Jesus, —not the devil and his imps— will, as you correctly stated, conduct their execution in punishment. Why? —because every true Husband (House band) seeks to clean His own house and punish or reward those within. But in final analysis, they will fall before Babylon shall herself fall. In this way, the "foundation stone", the "tried stone" can evangelize Jerusalem, the sons of America's former slaves away from Babylon, the Sunday Keeping Churches, the place of their current residence. They will be evangelized into the SDA Church by the Lord's tried foundational stone. Our cry then, at the time when the sinners in Zion are removed, will be, "Come out of her, my people, that ye be not partakers of her sins, and that ye receive not of her plagues...Reward her even as she rewarded you, and double unto her double according to her works..." —Rev 18: 4,

"Professed followers of that dear Saviour whose compassion was ever moved at the sight of human woe, heartily engage in this enormous and grievous sin, and deal in slaves and souls of men. Human agony is carried from place to place and bought and sold. Angels have recorded it all; it is written in the book. The tears of the pious bondmen and bondwomen, of fathers, mothers, and children, brothers and sisters, are all bottled up in heaven. God will restrain His anger but little longer. His wrath burns against this nation and especially against the religious bodies that have sanctioned this terrible traffic and have themselves engaged in it...They can inflict most inhuman torture with the same relentless cruelty manifested by papists and heathen toward Christ's followers. Said the angel, 'It will be more tolerable for the heathen and for papists in the day of the execution of God's judgment than for such men.' ... Said the angel, ... 'God's anger will not cease until He has caused this land of light to drink the dregs of the cup of His fury, until He has rewarded unto Babylon double. "Reward her even as she rewarded you, double unto her double according to her works; in the cup which she hath filled, fill to her double." ' " —EG White, Early Writings, pp. 276, 277.

Eyes and Ears of Discernment

But back to the SDA Church: The Masons, the Illuminati, the Papacy, the Ecumenicals, et al, can infiltrate to their hearts 'content, but it will be to their own demise even before Babylon falls. These are all men who, at their controlling head, are orchestrated by the same apostate, Jewish idolaters, of Calvary and before. Indeed, Judah was promised that the scepter will be retained in their house until today, the day when Shiloh is to “come” (see Gen 49). They may use their ancestral Bible history to lend certification and validity to justify their lofty status today. However, the scepter that is in their house is not of the Lord, the God of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob; instead, it is a scepter that is wielded by the Prince of this World, Satan. His kingdom will fall with the fall of Babylon. It will do so as I, Shiloh, a devout and Bible-certified Jew, continue to blossom.

In the interim, both the apostate Jews and Satan have intense hatred for Jesus, and they seek, as “unseen hands”, to discredit all of Christianity —especially the work of EG White and VT Houteff. This fact may make your lamentations against the SDA Church honorable but ill-informed. We know by prophecy that Judaism, as constituted by the Talmud —not to be confused with the Torah— is not a source of Bible validated doctrine; it is not controlled by Christ. Of this we can be assured because the Bible says that Christ shall give them up until the last day:

“...they shall smite the judge of Israel (Christ as He clandestinely abode upon Jesus) with a rod upon the cheek. But thou, Bethlehem Ephratah (The House of Jesse), though thou be little among the thousands of Judah, yet out of thee shall he come forth... (Shiloh, the MSC from the SDA Church)... that is to be ruler in Israel...Therefore will he (Christ) give them up, until the time that she which travaileth (the SDA Church) hath brought forth: then the remnant of his brethren (the 144,000) shall return unto the children of Israel” —Micah 5: 1- 3.

Subsequently, the SDA Church, the proverbial woman of the above prophecy, still has a mission before she can fall: She must “travail” to bring forth Shiloh, he “that is to be ruler in Israel”. For this reason, it is foolishness to yearn for her fall prematurely. Jesus said, “Verily, verily, I say unto you, That ye (true disciples of Christ) shall weep and lament, but the world (Babylon) shall rejoice: and ye shall be sorrowful, but your sorrow shall be turned into joy. A woman when she is in travail hath sorrow, because her hour is come: but as soon as she is delivered of the child, she remembereth no more the anguish, for joy that a man is born into the world.” —John 16: 20, 21.

Jesus offers the wise resolution to your anxiety: He promised the emergence of Shiloh to pacify the sorrows of the real disciples. Ergo, the wise look to the emergence of the “man child” to install their peace.

Sadly, and perhaps unbeknownst to you, they have prompted you, as best as I can ascertain from your letter, to seek peace in the practices of ancient, rejected Judaism, that which you called, in your E-mail, the religions of the Bible. Is this charge germane? Here is a simple test: All who substitute the name Yahweh for God, Yeshua for Jesus —a sin that, to my knowledge, the SDA Church has yet to install— have been bitten by the same venomous serpent which destroyed our original home in Eden. Therefore I come back at you with your own words, “May you have eyes to see and ears to hear before it is too late and you stay in the house that will be burnt up with Babylon.”

Sincerely,

Derek W West
