

The Mustard Seed Advent

Dirt from the Pit

Reply to Jeannie,

Jeannie,

All should now witness your spiritual meltdown so as to behold the depths of degradation in which a proud heart, one which refuses to acknowledge error, will be reduced. Truly indeed do we now see the veracity of the Bible's profession that the tares will become more discernable as we approach the harvest.

Rather than being broken by the Rock, rather than openly confessing that your greatly beloved heresy has been exposed and resoundingly defeated showing that the doctrine of the female-holy-spirit is pure heresy, you do the opposite. Instead of thanking the Lord for sending to you the Mustard Seed to save you from your slippery slope to hell, you dive head long into the devil's embrace. You do so by use of his sophistry professing, through twisted logic, that Derek West claims to be the Rock. Such a convoluted pathway, all must now witness, is your demise as you seek to refuse the blessings and benefit from the "strait testimony". This vision of your low way to perdition and of your very own personal, Friday-the-13th horror story, will allow some others who are wise to defeat their human pride and untwist themselves from error through the aid of the ever extended hand of the Lord's Mustard Seed Advent (MSA). They will, through the Elijah testimony, "...make straight in the desert a highway for our God" ---Isa 40:3. The lesson has been given by the Lord and is now available for all to see: historically as Davidians we presumed that when the day of the Lord would come, then we would be prepared to make our stand in support of HIS work. We assumed that, unlike every generation which preceded us, we would say, with great spiritual fervor and commitment, "this is our God; we have waited for Him and He will save us"---Isa 25:9. Then we presumed that we would float off over the horizon to the Kingdom singing praises of glory and hymns of praise. Although warned extensively by VTH and EGW, still we did not perceive the struggle with the human heart. Little did we understand that, like every generation beforehand, our pride and our desire for self promotion and self supremacy would grip our hearts causing us to desperately resist the Lord and tempting us to crucify Him afresh. We all now have as examples the struggles of Jeannie, Johnathan, Barb, Walt, Daniel, of the late Roland and so many others to show us that instead of uniting with Moses under the banner of God's word, we are more inclined to unite with Korah and His comrades. And, after squandering 77 years of preparation time, having lost the excellent opportunities to learn and practice the lessons of honesty, integrity, and humility, we will be tempted ---again in Jeannie's fashion--- to use falsehood, dishonesty, and pride to sustain our own righteousness. This will be everyone's test.

The Mustard seed has made many, many surprising and controversial doctrinal declarations which have jolted Davidia; indeed there are still messages to come. Yet, even though each of these Bible-based doctrines have violated our carnal and earth-bound center of gravity, the MSC has not backed away from any of its themes. Instead of shyly seeking to hide its doctrines --- doctrines such as the Duality of Jesus, the 144,000 emerging outside the SDA Church and from Babylon, the doctrine that the 144,000 will emerge from America's former slaves; the Doctrine of the Passover; the doctrine of End Time non Vegetarianism, of Paying Caesar his Taxes status, the Doctrine of David's emergence, etc--- it has successfully defended each of these doctrines with the Bible whenever they have been challenged. This has been its legacy in the past 15 months of E-mails: it has ignored convention and exalted Christ, the Word. This being the case, why would it ---in violation of the Lord's expressed command--- now begin to conceal its light under the proverbial bushel? Yet the enemy has muttered to you that "Derek, by his statement, is professing to be the Rock". If such were true, why would I conceal such a theme requiring you to interpret it from my work? The statement made by the MSC which inspired your claim is as follows: "Please immediately cease your misrepresentations. Because you have been reproved by the Rock and had your error exposed, does not mean that you have to forge a union with the 'Father of Lies'" ---MSC E-Mail, 11:13PM, 24-Apr-07. Having now seen your sophistry by this twist of my clear statement, another lesson which Davidia should learn by carefully observing your continued slide into hell comes from your very own illogic. For your argument is an expert example to manifest just how weak, bankrupt, and empty is the ability and reasoning powers of your father when his work is measured against the Bible. It is no wonder why, throughout history, instead of defeating the Bible teachings which the saints have proclaimed, he has sought to kill the messengers of the Lord. It is no surprise then that, even today, he has resorted to inspiring Davidian forums, controlled by his pretentious imps, to block the transmissions of the MSC, rather than engaging it by a point by point analysis. The message delivered by the Rock to the church showing His victory over your father, can now be verified, for Christ predicted the victory which Davidia is now witnessing, and He predicted Satan's humiliation when He said, "...upon this Rock will I build my church and the gates of hell shall not prevail against it" --- Matt 16: 18. In harmony with this claim, all should take note that the MSC, throughout its history, has not been defeated nor has it backed away from any of its detractors and their arguments; it indeed is inspired by that same Rock. If this were not so, then one would think that, in a period of more than 12 years and a period of almost 15 months communicating with the forum ---especially with the revolutionary doctrines which the MSC has advanced--- no one has been able to cite an error in its "surprising" and revolutionary theology. Merely examine the many detractors which the MSC has silenced to prove this point. The only argument that is advanced, again after all this time, is the devil's puny attempt to advance your false claim from my statement above. Let this be a witness to all that Christ is great, that His Word is a genius master piece, and that with it, His human advocate, the MSC, can resoundingly defeat the father of lies. Heaven and earth should now take pause to celebrate and applaud the Righteousness of Christ.

Now, without heaping too much embarrassment upon you and the defeated Branch, let us examine your dark E-mail statement. You said the following:

If I read the below email correctly, then it would appear that blasphemy is added to deception (claiming to be The Rock!).

Starting with Satan himself, what we see over and over again is a non-member of the Godhead (Yahovah Elohim) seeking to be equal with God. There is NONE equal with The Divine Family. Not DK. Not DW. NO one! ---Your E-mail from 25-Apr-07, 6:27 PM. Parenthesis belong

You started your statement by saying "if I read the below E-mail correctly"; this is a subordinate clause and is an acknowledgement that you had no evidence to sustain your conclusion. Yet, that simple fact did not stop you from proceeding to draw conclusions from wonderment and from making those conclusions to appear to be predicated upon your opening clause. If your twisted logic were true, if my claim of inspiration by the Lord truly meant that I was claiming to be the Rock, then such a charge must be assailed to all others who have likewise benefited from Divine inspiration. Do you accuse EGW and VTH of presuming to be Christ because they claim to be inspired by Him? Nothing more needs to be said to defeat your argument.

One point that has been established over the past 15 months of E-mail communications is that some Branch teachers received their doctrines from supernatural voices which are directly and audibly spoken to them inside their heads. Such communications cannot be from Heaven, since these voices have been proven to clearly violate the Scriptures, Heaven's designated source for all doctrines (see John 5:39, 3SM 29, GC, 595; V5, 575, and many more). And, since they have become the source for false worship and idolatry by the Branch, then they can only be echoes from hell. If, this is the source and medium of your retorts, then please instruct your mentor, that, by God's grace, I will remain on the kingdom path, and that He should "get behind me" and prepare for his consignment to the bottomless pit. His mutterings and peeps have been proven to be no match for the Word, and the MSC has no use for his sophistry and dark communications. The Lord has, all these 50 years, preserved His servant from personally seeing, and hearing Satan's direct and audible deceptions, and this same servant does not desire to indulge him in his dark speeches today. The only time the MSC desires to see or hear from him and his imps is when justice is meted out, the time when, after the millennium, they are screaming out from the engulfing flames of hell.

It is truly remarkable how your father has fallen; yet you seek his help to bring to you your relief. But how silly, for he cannot even preserve his own pride, let alone yours: he went from the highest in the universe under Christ to a discredited shyster and a parasite in the belly of this sin-cursed planet. And worse still for him, Israel, yesterday's victim of his venom, under the leadership of David's sin-overcoming son, the Mustard Seed, will both emerge from the dust of the earth to govern the redeemed from this planet and to ultimately tread him, and all who become his children, under their feet. Davidia, you must rise up today and claim your crowns, before it is too late and you are left, like Jeannie, holding onto the bag of dirt shoveled from Satan's ever enlarging pit.

Sincerely,

Derek
