

The Mustard Seed Advent

The Misery of the Lukewarm Angel

13-Apr-2007

Dear Pastor Knudsen,

In a prior E-mail, you identified your self as follows:

"Hi Derek, I'm not aware that there is such a thing as 'respectable, Davidic doctrine'. Satanic and misleading would be more like it. Do me a favor and remove me from your email list. Its a waste of my time to erase it from my email.. Pete Knudsen, pastor, Long Beach SDA Church" ---Your previous E-mail, Sunday, 08-Apr-07, 4:02PM

I instructed my helper to honor your request; yet, evidently, something went wrong. Perhaps she failed in the execution of my instructions ---these things happen from time to time--- or perhaps someone else forwarded to you my E-mail. I will personally check the list to assure that this is my last correspondence to you.

In either case, I apologize for failing to follow your instructions by taking your name off of my E-mail list, but it was obviously a providential oversight. The Mustard Seed Advent, (AKA: MSC) a Davidian Seventh-day Adventist message, teaches from Scripture that probation will shortly close for the nominal SDA brethren and their ministry because of their ignorance, hostility, and hatred of the Lord's word. As depicted in Rev 3, He has stood outside of that church seeking entry by knocking at her door; yet, though they hypocritically profess to love and serve Him, He cannot gain entry into their collective hearts. This sad reality has lulled them to a false comfort zone and they now sleep in their misery and blindness. They do not believe the evidences of His word, they only believe doctrines which make them comfortable that sustain their lukewarm condition. Therefore, to save the world, the Lord has no other alternative but to vomit them and their Davidian counterparts out of His mouth, and empower His faithful to redirect their efforts towards Babylon, the Sunday Keeping Churches. By your providential E-mail, you, as a SDA minister of the Gospel, perfectly illustrate to Davidia the justice of the Lord's strong actions.

In your latest correspondence, you wrote the following:

"Oh my goodness! Its so obvious! I SEE IT NOW! You really are a deluded fool. As I said before, take me off your moronic email list." ---Friday 13, 12-Apr-07, 12:12AM

My poor, angry, and miserable brother, did they not teach you in the SDA seminary that you have no "goodness", that, "...none is good, save one, that is God."---Luke 18: 19. Or, do you not believe the "Testimony of Jesus" and the Bible, Christ's words. My sense tells me that the latter must be the case. This seems to be logical since, in your ghoulish, Friday the 13 response to my paper, Clinching Proof of Duality, you reject the overwhelming, Bible-based evidence contained therein by making an appeal to your very own goodness. Can the theme of "nakedness and blindness" be more positively validated? With this statement, who can help but wonder if your problem is that you do not believe in the goodness of the Word, that you reject the Righteousness of Christ. You must answer at once the following question: do you believe the Lord's profession when He said, "I the Lord speak righteousness, I declare things that are right" ---Isa 45: 19. If so, why then, apart from your own private ideas of righteousness, "your goodness", are you so hostile to my E-mail? With the corrupting influences of the many spurious and non-scriptural doctrines now taught in the SDA church, doctrines which the Lord has sought these past 77 years to correct with the Rod, you have obviously launched yourself on a crooked path seeking salvation by the hand of your own sinlessness; yet, you call me a "deluded fool"! Worse still, you further show your uncharitable behavior by belittling so called “morons”, people who, through no fault of their own, have been born with diminished intellectual capacity. Clearly, by such harsh words of mockery, it becomes evident that if you were to truly see a “moron” on the street ---perhaps while you piously plot your pretentious path to the pernicious, podium in the pulpit--- you would likewise ridicule such an unfortunate child of God by mocking his condition. This is evident because you have assailed me with such a charge instead of extending the pity which such a condition, were it true, should evoke from the righteous. Did not the Lord issue the following warning: “...whosoever shall say, thou fool, shall be in danger of hell fire.”---Matt 5: 22. A true Christian is one who has pity on the less fortunate as he remembers the Lord’s statutes, “thou shalt not curse the deaf, nor put a stumblingblock before the blind...” ---Lev 19:14. Surely, our loving Lord would demand equal compassion and consideration for the morons!

The E-mail, Clinching Proof of Duality Gives overwhelming, Bible evidences and some SOP proof that our understanding of the Nature of Christ would grow and expand as we, the church, approach the Lord’s kingdom. Such doctrinal advances, according to the Lord Himself, will occur in the “last DAY”. Yet, I am not naïve. I do realize that whenever new and non-traditional themes that a man may discern about the nature of Christ are proclaimed, they will evoke the greatest eruptions of vitriol, misery, and hostility. This has as much to do with our incomplete understanding about the Lord ---see Luke 10:22, Heb 6:1, and Eph 4:11-13--- as it also does with the carnal impulses of the heart. Humans hate to advance in truth. But there is no justification for any man to refuse to do as the MSC has done: none will have an excuse in the judgment for being shy or reluctant to teach more about Christ by unfolding and believing shocking, surprising, and ‘new meaning from familiar text’ ---EGW, CSW 35. For those men who truly believe in the Testimony of Jesus, this is absolutely a win, win; no lose situation. We realize that the Lord has, in His great magnanimity, promises to us no penalty even in the event, impossible as it may be, that we have mistakenly embraced His word. This is the peace that He has given us for should such an unlikely outcome occur, we would have to still be judged as better professors of faith than our detractors. But beyond that, Christ has assured us that there is no penalty for honestly teaching a mistaken idea about His nature. He said as much in the following testimony: “...whosoever shall speak a word against the Son of man, it shall be forgiven him”. These words can only comfort a person who believes the Lord. And, along with that comforting assurance, He further promises us in John 14: 26 that the Father would send to us the Comforter to remind us of those words which He, Christ said ---the very words which, in my E-mail, I resurfaced--- the same words which you have so hostilely rejected. Thus, it is your miserable reaction which promises jeopardy, and until you correct it, you will never have peace: for the Lord continued to say, “but unto him that blasphemed against the Holy Ghost it shall not be forgiven.” ---Luke 12: 10. By virtue of these sacred words from the very throne of God, I feel secure in my Bible-based teachings. I do not consider myself “foolish” nor “moronic” for advocating to Davidia and to you the words of Christ which the Comforter has inspired me to reminisce and to teach. Conversely, by reason of your harsh reaction, I feel that you are in danger of “hell fire”, and I urge you at this very late hour to awaken from the misery of your lukewarm malady, to cease your dependence upon your own goodness, to retract your statements immediately, and to respect the life saving Testimony of Jesus.

Sincerely,
Derek
