

The Mustard Seed Advent

Uniting the Shepherd and the Rod

Oct-29-2007

Dear Brethren,

I hope that all have heeded the below counsel from EGW fed to us by Walt in a recent E-mail. To quote it again, she says:

"When you find men questioning the testimonies, finding fault with them, and seeking to draw away the people from their influence, be assured that God is not at work through them. It is another spirit. Doubt and unbelief are cherished by those who do not walk circumspectly. They have a painful consciousness that their life will not abide the test of the Spirit of God, whether speaking through His Word or through the testimonies of His Spirit that would bring them to His Word. Instead of beginning with their own hearts, and coming into harmony with the pure principles of the gospel, they find fault, and condemn the very means that God has chosen to fit up a people to stand in the day of the Lord. {1SM 45.1}" —Walt's E-mail, Monday, October 29, 2007 8:39 AM, emphasis belong to sender of above quote

The winds of attack on inspiration are even now blowing as promised by EGW. Manifestation of this phenomena can be seen by Walt's indisputable effort to dishonor EGW's central theme and dominant statement from her work by issuing quotes like the one above and hoping that this forum will not measure it by the Bible as EGW commanded. He, Walt, seems to think ---against Shepherd's Rod Counsel— that EGW and not Elijah can describe to us how to pass the judgment (see GCS 19). Ironically, from the divine, EGW prophecy above, though cited by Walt with the obvious intent to cause men to ignore the Word, we can, by careful examination, already see it's fulfillment today. We merely need to examine Davidian leaders, men set as "guardians of the faith who stand before the house", people such as Walt, Henry, Michael, Johnathan, Eric and many others who have ignored EGW's most ubiquitous and dominant theme. They are, in Pharisaical fashion, practicing that which the Testimony of Jesus condemned: they are straining at the proverbial gnat while they seek to swallow a camel. They do so by disregarding the principle which EGW has exalted above all of her other teachings of the testimonies, the requisite resounded most frequently in her writings: the demand that we secure our faith and establish all of our doctrines—not from her writings but— from the Bible. Therefore, it is Walt and his chorus of heresy singers who find themselves becoming the "men questioning the testimonies and finding fault with them and seeking to draw away the people from their influence..." Would not logic manifest that "the influence of the testimonies" be those themes which EGW vociferated the loudest, the longest, and the most often? Why should such things be ignored while other, less articulated doctrines, doctrines which counter advancing Bible teachings be celebrated? Should not the men who profess to honor the SOP honor the teaching which resonate the loudest from her work, the teaching which is repeated most often, and the doctrine which is validated by the Testimony of Jesus, the doctrine straight from the lips of Jesus and cited several times in the writings of EGW which demands that we should base our theories of eternal life on our search of Scripture? Today, our burden must be to correct the errors of these deceptive, Luciferian Christians, men who believe on Christ but only to a point, to the point where His Word can become subordinate and His influence equal to a level beneath His appointed angels of light, such as VTH and EGW. I urge all to stop the heresy now: stop elevating your favorite reference of the SOP above its central theme and pre-ordained purpose, to lead men back to the Word. All Davidians should unite with this MSC's effort, this "testimony that God has given which will never contradict the Bible" (3SM 32)

The Mustard Seed Advent

Yesterday, our only link to God was through His prophets; thus, temptation caused us to elevate them to His level, and honor which none have ever been worthy. Remember, the Lord Himself said that John the Baptist was the greatest of all prophets: greater than Moses, than Elijah, than Jeremiah, than Isaiah, etc. Some of the names of His prophets such as Moses, Elijah, Daniel, Isaiah (Esaias), Abel, Jonah, etc were given the great honor of having their names mentioned during the Lord's testimony, others were not. Some were translated or resurrected, others still sleep; yet, none of them were esteemed as highly as was John. Thus, if the Lord had His most honored prophets, then clear thinking and logical reasoning will manifest to the wise that He likewise must have those whom He considers His least favorites. This point is affirmed by the Lord's own range of favor expressed towards His disciples and by Jacob's favor towards some of his own sons? Therefore, by this testimony from the Lord about John the Baptist, we can discern that Christ has His own medium to appraise their righteousness. Evidently then, He will judge VTH and EGW according to this same unique standard of rank. Knowing this point, we can realize by Scripture that all of yesterday's prophets, even John, will have an inferior status to the end-time disciples, the "disciples indeed", today. In other words, the men who embrace the MSC today which is defined as the beginning of the Lord's kingdom, the disciples who continue in His word, with the exception of the Only Begotten who is seated on the Father's right hand, will rank the highest in the eyes of God, (see Joel 2). They represent the proverbial Disciple John, the Lord's youngest and most favorite, the ones who teach the church to not worship the prophets but to worship Father. Highest among them will be the Lord's prime minister in the Kingdom, the one whom Christ, promised to be the greatest among the disciples (Matt 19), the one elected by Christ to show the church how to pass the judgment, the author of the MSC; he has the mission to minister to the lesser-ranking disciples. In so doing, they will know exactly how to appreciate the inspiration of yesterday's prophets, VTH and EGW, Elijah and Moses, for they are the very ones who will be the teachers of yesterday's prophets when they are assembled in the Kingdom. It could be no other way because, according to Joel two, they are the greatest ever. Clearly, the Mustard seed, the Lord's beginning kingdom 'made up of living saints only at first' (9T, 40) —not EGW nor VTH— is, according to Jesus' testimony, commissioned to minister to the disciples just as Christ ministered to them. He is the one who will bring the perfect day, the day when partial prophecies will be done away. Therefore, does he validate both EGW and VTH, the Lord's rod and His staff, in their yearning to point you back to Christ. In other words, he does that which EGW demanded throughout her work, he presents to you the Word of God, the Bible. He puts the Shepherd back into the Rod.

To do otherwise is to fail in the judgment by doing those things which Walt desires to do: that is to change the simple statements of Christ so as to reflect his, Walt's, idolatrous love for "sop" themes such as that of vegetarianism? His E-mails have taken a very bold Luciferian approach so that simple statements such as the following which clearly manifest that Christ will serve and consume flesh in the Kingdom he tries to pervert:

"Then came the day of unleavened bread, when the Passover must be killed...and (Christ) said unto them, With desire I have desired to eat this Passover with you before I suffer. For I say unto you, I will not any more eat thereof, until it be fulfilled in the Kingdom of God." —Luke 22: 7, 15, 16

Clearly, Christ consumed the Passover lamb, the only part of that feast which was required to be killed. People do not kill a loaf of bread nor do they kill a glass of wine. Using a shortened speech, Christ called that lamb, "the Passover". Its flesh was taken, and just as was commanded in times past by Christ way back in Exod 12 & Lev 23. It, the Passover, after being killed and drained of blood, was roasted on fire and entirely eaten. This was the desire which Christ had, and it was the same clearly expressed desire that He had to consume it again tomorrow in the Kingdom. As the MSC obeys its commission to cry aloud and spare not, it must explain that only a Luciferian, serpent-tile snake in the garden would seek to alter Christ's clearest of words and seek to tell the church that which he, Lucifer, told mother Eve yesterday, that Christ needs a translator. The same applies to the next reference which Walt seeks to ignore, the Lord promised to Command His servants, at the return of the Prodigal to do the following:

“But the Father said to his servants, Bring forth the best robe, and put it on him; and put a ring on his hand, and shoes on his feet: and bring hither the fatted calf and kill it; and let us eat, and be merry” —Luke 15: 22,23

This is the Lord’s formula for happiness in the Kingdom; yet, Walt seeks to tempt you to believe that such a formula for merriment is inferior to serving Tofu, broccoli, carrots, lettuce, beets, and onions. Who knows best how to make the saints happy, Christ or Walt?

Below Walt ventured way out on the Luciferian limb by partially quoting Isa 65:25 to validate his yearning to dip his bread in SOP. Ever so eager to prove that EGW and VTH are smarter than Christ, he, Walt, gave the following Scripture: “...They shall not hurt nor destroy in all my holy mountain, saith the Lord”—Isa 65: 25 (butchered by Walt). Rather than teaching the Bible, Walt has evidently reclined upon the ignorance of the forum hoping that they will not read the full Bible text. It says,

“The wolf and the lamb shall feed together, and the lion shall eat straw like the bullock: and dust shall be the serpent’s meat. They shall not hurt nor destroy in all my holy mountain, saith the Lord” —Isa 65: 25 (sanctity preserved by the MSC).

Clearly, when Lucifer is defeated and the full context of the Lord’s statements can be viewed, we see that He is not describing the diet of the saints but rather the diets of his dangerous, life-threatening predatory creatures as they abide in Palestine, His Holy Mountain. He has not yet given His MSC servant commission to define full the standards of salvation for His creatures. Such is a gospel which perhaps will come later after we master the full standards of salvation for His people. However, we can have the assurance that the predatory creatures who, as part of the curses of the law, have historically attacked humans making them fearful, will no longer destroy our peace with the dreadful thoughts of their aggression: “there will be peace in the valley”. This has no application to the mature diet, the one which man will assume in the Kingdom, when he learns to consume strong meat so as to discern to choose the good and to refuse the evil.

Finally, all should become clear thinkers and logical reasoners: they should display to EGW and VTH the greatest honor that we may bestow to them by recognizing Christ, the One whom they point to us to worship. The reason why they are no longer are counted among the living could only be because the Lord desires for Davidia to advance to the next higher rung of righteousness. He desires that we embrace the one which will finally reunite the Shepherd with the Rod, David’s eternal formula for happiness according to Ps 23.

Sincerely,

Derek
