

The Mustard Seed Advent

Escape from Hells Flames

03-Apr-2009

Dear Brethren.

Short and simple —the Straight Testimony is sent to rescue Davidia from the thralls of the most devastating nightmare imaginable, a nightmare soon to be made real in their lives. She is the last generation of church rebellion; she must overcome to pass the judgment. If the MSA should fail to loudly blast such a life-saving trumpet, giving it an uncertain sound instead, such lethargy would represent the ultimate display of an unloving messenger. The MSA, due to its great love, will not preserve its standing seeking favor from any by muting this appeal for salvation from heaven. Below is countervailing testimony from the tempter to call the MSA from its duty and humor Davidia in her slumber.

“Is it not the Lord who sent the words that are written in those passages posted by the brother? Shall we seek to insult because we do not like the words? Does not your reply serve to show that it is this portion of the Lord’s testimony that you need to consider carefully? I know him Derek, and though being quite young in age and new to the message, he is no ‘fool’” —Walts E-mail, 4/3/2009, 10:10am

The words to which you refer are quotes from EGW, quotes which you deployed to attack Christ. You have seen countless statements from her showing that her work is not to be ranked on the same level as the Bible or Jesus’ testimony. Why do you insist on refusing her inspiration to point you back to the Bible; why do you determine to violate her counsel which demands that we never place her work on the level of the Bible? When will you tear yourself from that idol? Others may be deceived to presume that you honor the work of EGW and VTH; however, the “straight testimony” enters into the record evidence to show that you harbor a different impulse. This is the MSA’s Jesus/Christ-validated, beam-from-the-eye-removed, judgment. Please do not do as Lucifer so did to his followers in the beginning: Please do not deceive the young brother of whom you refer in your E-mail to think that it is too late for him to embrace righteousness, that you both share the same fate from heaven. I urge you again, because you have decided in your heart to reject Christ, do not seek the company of others to share with you your hell-predestined misery.

You and others also make mention of the need to be loving. The love of the MSA is made manifest by its willingness to declare the Lord’s Testimony amidst great opposition. This is made evident by the fact that it has loudly broadcast many unpopular, bible-validated messages so as to promote Christ’s Righteousness. To make such a sacrifice for the salvation of the disciples is a great act of love. It is “the child-conversion” process recommended by the Lord. The willingness to reduce or efface ones reputation to save —to accept revilings and be made to look small— is that which the Lord referred to in the below reference:

“At the same time came the disciples unto Jesus, saying, who is the greatest in the Kingdom...and Jesus called a little child unto him, and set him in the midst of them, and said, except ye be converted, and become as little children, ye shall not enter into the kingdom of heaven. Whosoever therefore shall humble himself as this little child, the same is greatest in the kingdom of heaven. And whoso shall receive one such little child in my name receiveth me” — Matt 18:3.

To become converted to a child, to humble oneself you must first be an adult. To receive this man-to-child-converted disciple we are told is to receive Christ —this is by VTH’s affirmation for the italicized portions of the above quote are found in the Rod, the portion which Davidia chooses to ignore. Remember, VTH commanded to us our duty: that we ‘read every word, EVERY WORD, EVERY WORD in his writings and let not a line escape our attention.’ After so doing, we are commanded by him to prove all his work by the Bible. He further said that this methodology is the only safe and sane way to approach the Shepherd's Rod Message. Why do you therefore tempt Davidians to, at this late hour, become unsafe and insane by ignoring the above words, the above quote from the very lips of Jesus? So as to avoid my beam-free judgment, I give you and your young friend another option; that is to judge yourself: Ask yourself, is this path of yours which lures Davidians to disrespect both Christ and VTH inspired by the Comforter or some other power? Christ, One whom the MSA respects, showed that He will place a man converted to a child among you. To rebel against the counsel from the one so disrespected and shooed away, the one man who is made childlike by the other disciples, is to violate this testimony and lose access to the Kingdom during the Judgment of the Living. We know this because both Christ and VTH tells us that it is a requisite to “enter into the Kingdom”, a thing which only living people can do. Brethren, why do you refuse to heed the Rod!? A child is used proverbially to show that the adults, the established Davidian leadership, do not give credence to his words much like that which the forum, Carmel, Bashan, and all other Davidian groups—which have denied the MSA access to their circle of communion—have done. They have, in effect shooed the MSA away so that they can discuss doctrines without the interruptions of one whom they deem to be of little “significance” and of no accountability, a child. Their danger is that Christ has carefully placed him amongst them as shown in His Bible counsel above; and this can be proven because the doctrine which he, the MSA teaches, are the very words of Christ. Thus, they condemn Christ, calling Him, amongst many of their charges, unloving and mean. For remember, Christ said, and the Rod affirmed by quoting Him and putting His words in the Rod, the following: “whoso shall receive one such little child in my name receiveth me”.

Also, the most evil that one could ever commit is to soften the Lord's trumpeted warning expressed by His “still small voice (not His grandiose, large, and/or powerful voice)”, the proverbial child. It is most evil because it represent the refusal to humble oneself as the “little child”; it is to violate the Lord's established procedure to walk into His Kingdom. All who choose to answer the Lord's Testimony, those words proclaimed to His disciples 2,000 years ago and made plain by the Mustard Seed today, with statements from lesser lights are the vilest of idolaters. They are most vile because they have had the greatest opportunity ever, the chance to escape death, and they refuse. This is what you have done these past three years; its what your young friend chooses to do; therefore it is evidence of your rebellion. For both VTH and EGW resoundingly rejected this deployment of their testimony. Simply put, this is Laban's idol which you have hidden among your stuff. The Lord said and VTH affirmed by quoting His word that wise men are those who hear His word and live it; they are men who build their house upon the Rock. Those who hear His words and refuse them Christ calls fools. From your above quote, you appear to reject the Lord's definition of a “fool” and, because you think it to be too harsh, seek to supplant it with that of your very own. Why do you, in Luciferian fashion, tempt the forum to reject Christ's definition of a fool? He said, “Every one that heareth these sayings of mine, and doeth them not, shall be likened unto a foolish man, which built his house upon the sand” —Matt 7: 26. Since both you and your youthful friend seek to elevate the writings of EGW and VTH above the sayings of Christ—go back to read your E-mails to affirm this charge—His teaching while He was yet with the disciples (John 14: 25), then you are not building your house as recommended and are condemned by the Lord to be “foolish men”. To soften that message in any way is to automatically fall under its condemnation for it is to hear the words of Christ and to “doeth them not”. You say that your friend is not a “fool”: I recommend that the forum accept Christ's incontrovertible judgment above yours. Does this condemn me to the flames of hell as you suggest? Can a man be condemned to hell for following Christ?—only Satan would make such a laughable and ridiculous charge! The Lord does indeed say that to call your brother a “fool” endangers a man to be assigned to hell fire. The only way to escape such a danger is to do that which all MSA Davidians have done: to heed the Lord's counsel and to let Him define the fools, and then to make His judgments your very own. To deny this is to suggest the impossible: that Christ can be assigned to the flames of hell. This is impossible because Father controls that fire, and He told Christ to make the statement of Matt seven about fools. The Lord said, “He that rejecteth me, and receiveth not my words, hath one that judgeth him: the word that I have spoken, the same shall judge him in the last day. For I have not spoken of myself; but the Father which sent me, he gave me a commandment, what I should say and what I should speak” —John 12: 28, 49. Therefore anyone who takes the Lord’s words to heart and does them is, by Christ’s own promise, schedule for Life everlasting— he is not in danger of hell’s fire. For Jesus said, “Verily, verily, I say unto you, If a man keep my saying, he shall never see death” ---John 8: 51. The conclusion of the matter is that all of Davidia begin to comply with VTH’s Bible-validated formula to escape the slaughter. Please today, commit to becoming the successful saints of Rev 12 by heeding the Testimony of Jesus. His inclusion of this teaching puts the entire 3 ½ year testimony of Jesus into His work. If you feel that this straight Testimony is too harsh, then you only have a short while longer to bear it. God’s Spirit, the Comforter whose mission it is to remind you of Jesus’ testimony, will not always strive with you. But if you are unsettled now by this testimony —should you not heed it— your troubles will be multiplied exponentially.

One final note: If you continue to insist that my voice is too harsh, then this is a judgment of my work. In so doing ,your are likewise guilty on this count of violating the voice of the Lord. He says you should not judge until you remove the beam from your eyes, and he condemns you as hypocrites for so doing beforehand —read Matt 7: 1-5 . The Mustard Seed has heeded this counsel, and has extracted from its vision the blinding beam; it shows others how they can likewise so do. Resultantly, it is authorized and commanded to judge. You will receive this wisdom only if the Rev-12 expressed, life-saving words of Jesus mean anything to you.

Sincerely

Derek
