Know Without a Doubt

Dear brother Johnson,

You wrote the following question:

“ ‘144,000 will not emerge from the ranks of the SDA church, but from the sons of America's former slaves found in Babylon, the Sunday-keeping churches.’ ” Derek West
"Are you saying that the 144,000 will not be members of the 7th Day Adventist church? Are you saying that Davidians are wrong? How did you come up with that conclusion?" —Your E-mail, March 30, 2010, 3:50 PM

My conclusion —to the surprise of many— is in full compliance with the Rod. You may recall that the Adventist position as articulated from 1SM 174 conveys ignorance on this subject until the elect emerge. It forbids speculation on the subject of those who will comprise the 144,000 assuring us that the elect will in a short time know without a doubt. Armed with much newly– unfolded light from the Bible and the SOP, the elect today need to no longer speculate. Much literature has been written to validate this conclusion. An entire book has been written and made available to you free of charge entitled, From Beyond the Rivers of Ethiopia my Suppliants. If you would like, I can send it to you. Short of that, please go to my website, Mustardseedadvent.com, and read the following short E-mails. Simply select resources and go to articles dated as follows:

- 28-Feb-2007, 144,000 Victory from Psychosis
- 12-Dec-2006, Who Hath Heard Such a Thing
- 08-Aug-2007, Jerusalem Pay Double for Sins
- 21-Jun-2006, 144,000

There are many other E-mail papers that are contained therein, but these will be a start. None have ever refuted the substance of the arguments. Each E-mail shows evidence which respects both the writings of EGW and VTH. The MSA teaches that probation will end for the SDA church shortly, that the Lord will lead His sheep out of the fold (John 10). The 144,000 will be evangelized from the Sunday-keeping churches by Davidia; they will bring them into the church before the Slaughter — such should really not be a shock to any! It is the very same as if the SDA elders themselves evangelized them from Babylon today. If that occurred as it has occurred during the 80 prior years of the Rod, whereby Davidians have targeted newly baptized Adventists, Davidians would gleefully target them in this day also and do so as quickly as the next day after their baptism so as to teach them the Rod. The only difference is that the Lord grows Davidia to be the “elected” evangelists of His people. He has done so for this hour as He dismisses the tawdry and unfaithful, SDA elders.

If you desire more information please feel free to write.

Sincerely,

Derek
