

Excerpt from: Confederacy Trap

...Adventists are to be gripped with a fear which uniquely pertains to them. It is called “their fear”. It grips them because they have never learned to sanctify Christ. Resultantly, they are at war with His righteousness, and this war has gripped them with a fear that, no matter how they may seek to disguise it otherwise, is political. They fear the loss of their power. They do not want the US government to step on them the way they have stepped upon their Davidian brethren these last 80 years. This is their true fear; it has nothing to do with terrorism as many have speculated. Greatly hysterical, they will make a public appeal attempting to enlarge their numbers of supporters with people who respect the First Amendment. This is similar to the way that they promote their Liberty Magazine; it is a vain attempt to manipulate the Assyrian....
