Insidious Mickey Drop

Dear Will,

You responded to me in great ignorance falsely accusing me of doing the very opposite of that which is my ministerial emphasis. Such is frustrating because, even the shortest messages from my most recent E-mails unequivocally express that I do not promote EGW over the Bible; I do the opposite. Ergo, I must ask you, being a man of such enormous ignorance, how is it that you presume your current ideas about the Bible to be predicated in wisdom and in truth? Such inconsistencies manifest that you stagger like one who is spiritually inebriated.

Furthermore, you are a self-declared, non-Adventist and thus you have placed yourself beyond the reach of my ministry; however, duty demands that I reply to some of your issues. I am shocked to report your crassness as a Christian. In your first E-mail to me you actually said, “Don't be a dick Derek, . . . what you have done is quite rude” —your E-mail, May 31, 2016, 6: 41 PM.

In your most recent E-mail you said,

“I am not an Adventist and neither could I become one. I do not use EG White's writings for anything and neither shall I. If there is any further communication between us it would have to rely (sic) wholly on the bible. Your doctrine that the Christ is the dove and not the man named Yahshua from birth is not scriptural.” —your E-mail, May 31, 2016, 11: 05 PM.

You are quite crass in your verbiage as made manifest in your first E-mail message. Thus the MSC, seeking to reach you on your level, can choose to respond by using a similar crass metaphor of social intercourse to address your clamorings. Before so doing, you say that all of your doctrines are Bible based; yet, you dare to refer to Jesus, against Bible evidence, as Yahshua. Such is a term that Jewish scholars, some 130 years ago, conjured and then handed to simple-minded Christians, by Masonic infiltration, as a substitute for the name, Jesus. They did so using the serpent-like sophistry guised in the inane claim that the letter “J” is of recent historic vintage and therefore illegitimate —arguing that Jews did not use that letter historically. In this, they assume that it is a new sound, the phonics of which have just been invented —how utterly preposterous. How is it that you accede to the findings of such men of dubious duplicity but cannot appreciate EG White? To help you and others to whom this letter will be circulated, the MSC has supplied much evidence expressed in the following articles (see attached links . . . Sacred Name: The Shake of the Fake Quake – Part I, Sacred Name: The Shake of the Fake Quake – Part II and Sacred Name: The Shake of the Fake Quake – Part III) to totally destroy that false concept. Hence, contrary to your profession, the center of your entire theology has been exposed to be supplanted by sophistry; it is not Bible based.

Your faith is an intoxicant, indeed, one laced with a mind-numbing “mickey”, an insidious, knock-out drug used to stealthily exploit unsuspecting and witless women who place their trust in human charm. And, to your horror, like one of Bill Cosby’s similarly abused girlfriends of the past, you will soon become awakened in the dawn of Bible enlightenment only to discover that you too have been screwed (This is about as crass as Elijah chooses to get). You have been deceived to verbalize your petitions to the Lord with a Jewish curse word that was born out of their resentment: You refer to Jesus as Yahshua. This you have done while insulting Father for He revealed to you the Lord’s own personal name during Jesus’ testimony; His personal name is “Christ” as proven in the above, attached letters. Human scholarship and false research —handed to us without wise and careful cross-examination— is the “mickey” that has been dropped into your spiritually intoxicating drink. Your trust is in those duplicitous authorities of antiquity and Bible history; your faith is not in the Bible as you presume. And you have the audacity to impeach the Lord’s Holy Spirit, the Person whom He promised to send after He, the Dove, ascended, the One who inspired EGW’s work. This audacity is made more stark to the enlightened for they know that she was a very astute and savvy woman who incessantly recommended to you to avoid all “mickeys” and secure your doctrine from the Bible.

[As a side bar, in a very literal or non-proverbial sense, the wisdom of EGW’s inspiration is likewise made manifest in this illustration of the insidious mickey drop: She recommended that not only should Christians, in this hour of the Church’s comingling with the gentiles, abstain from all intoxicating beverages, but that they should go further and not visit the dens of iniquity, places that serve such drinks. Christ was first in this recommendation (see Matt 10: 16, Matt 24: 29, Luke 21: 34, etc.) Think of how Bill Cosby’s many deceived and duped dates could have dodged their degradation had they embraced the emancipating counsel of EG White by conducting themselves as faithful Seventh-day Adventist women of honor. Yet, the MSC’s position on her inspiration must be clarified: None should misunderstand the MSC’s dis-accreditation of her work. Its purpose is to merely express that much of her counsel, like the peniel foreskin of a man, was time for painful surgical expiration. Today we are approaching the end of the PROVERBIAL Day of Atonement whereby we can re-evaluate, by heart circumcision, her counsel so as to cease from or transit away from all biblically imposed “soul afflictions” such as the prohibition against drinking intoxicants, such as vegetarianism, such as dress reform, dancing, perhaps even the wearing of jewelry, etc, all standards that have been commissioned to us in the Law of Atonement and temporarily imposed upon Christians by EGW’s prophetic ministry. Today, there is a new dawning: In wisdom, Elijah, as promised, having the beam removed from his eyes, can judge so as to decide the beverages, like wine, that we can imbibe for some of them are commanded to us in the Law.]

But your deception requires more reprimand: Had you trusted in the Bible, you would have never allowed the enemies of Christ to define for you His name —and remember, without the evangelical efforts of the disciples which began 2000 years ago, the world would not have been endowed with a Christian contribution to world religion. That epoch has successfully brought to view the abhorrence of all gentile rudimentary customs causing them to escape the embarrassment of the world’s newly installed, high-browed ethics and scrutiny by hiding themselves in secret lodges. Hence, we must not forget our first love; we must honor the 11 disciples commissioned by Jesus in Matt 28. Before sending them, Christ, while clandestinely hiding upon Jesus, blessed their work by uttering the following prayer to Father:

“...Father the hour is come...I have manifested thy name unto the men which thou gavest me out of the world...For I have given unto them the words which thou gavest me...I pray for them: I PRAY NOT FOR THE WORLD, but for them which thou hast given me; for they are thine...They are not of the world...Sanctify them through thy truth: thy word is truth...Neither pray I for these alone, but for them also which shall believe on me through their word...the glory which thou gavest me I have given them...” —John 17: 1, 6, 8, 9, 16, 17, 20, 22.

What a jolting reality: The Lord closed His ministry by asking Father to bless those saints who will believe on Him by the testimony —not of Jewish scholars but— of the 11 disciples whom Father personally selected for Christ. Saints who base their doctrine, as EGW recommended, on the Bible will know that this prayer for glory and honor excludes all other NT teachers, some of whom were righteous prophets, such as Paul, WM Miller, EG White, VT Houteff, Martin Luther, John Wesley, John Knox, John Campbell, MJ Bingham, et al. While others wallow and flounder themselves to visual adjustment in the brilliance of this new light, as they seek to pique their awareness of this newly-dawned day, and as they seek to shake off their liquor-induced hangovers, the sanctified men of Father’s truth, those disciples indeed who allowed the original 11 to forge for them the basis for their doctrines of Christ, shall, in the dawning of the morning of Jacob’s transformation to Israel, receive the true Christian orientation, its new name. Its bona fide identity is to now be changed so that the sun may metaphorically rise on them. It shall rise upon the men who have not released Christ from their embrace by calling to Him with a strange name, Yahshua:

“And Jacob was left alone; and there wrestled a man with him until the breaking of the day...and (Christ) said, Let me go, for the day breaketh. And (Jacob) said, I will not let thee go, except thou bless me...And (Christ) said unto him...thy name shall be called no more Jacob, but Israel: for as a prince hast thou power with God and with men, and hast prevailed...And as he passed over Penuel (circumcision of heart, See Deut 10: 16) the sun rose upon him” —Gen 32: 24, 26, 27, 28, 31.

Like the foreskin of man’s diminutive head, though it was originally given to us by God, all of our inherited doctrines from those past leaders must likewise be circumcised and exchanged for the Bible light which was promised to rise on Jacob.

The only Jewish scholars that we are commissioned to respect are the 11 who survived Calvary. All others, at best, are useless “foreskins” —a carnal endowment to man from God. Evidence of this conclusion comes in the answer to the following question: How did your non-Biblical scholars fail you regarding the Lord’s name? They stupidly presumed that the concept of the name of the Lord was a reference to His personal appellation, Bill, John, Sam, Ted, Jesus, Christ, etc. They further failed to discern its deeper concept: It refers to a description of His identity. For example, if you do not know that it was Christ, the Dove who abode upon Jesus and not Jesus Himself operating independently, or that it was not the Father Himself, or the Comforter, then you do not know His personal identity, His name. Identity is integral to nominal appellation. To illustrate, one can go to the phone book of any large city and look up the name of Sam Jones, but to reach the party that you seek, you will need to know more details. It is the Bible that gives to us those details and the son of David, Derek West, who reveals them. To be more specific without re-writing that which has already been expressed in prior publications, Moses inquired of Christ, “Behold, when I come unto the children of Israel...they shall say to me, ‘What is his name? What shall I say unto them?’” —Exod 3: 13. Christ makes my point. He said: “Thus shalt thou say unto the children of Israel, The Lord God of your Fathers, the God of Abraham...Isaac....and Jacob, hath sent me unto you: this is my name forever” —Exod 3: 15. Instead of saying my name is William, or Theodore, or Bartholomew, or Yahshua, or Yahweh, etc, He told Moses to answer queries about His name by defining for them His identity. Why did not your beloved scholars discern this clear expression of His name? To boot, He has other precise labels to identify Himself to the world. For one, He is the creator of heaven and earth, and it is a sin to ascribe that identity to Jesus, the Son of God who was begotten thereafter by some four thousand years. Take a moment of reflection before advancing so that you may grasp the significance of this revelation: All people, no matter how unsophisticated the theology, when they prayed in the name of the Creator, they were credited in heaven to be calling upon Christ. The answers to their prayers have been temporarily forestalled because the world, these past two thousand years, was placed in the hands of Jesus.

The mustard seed in furtherance of Moses’ promise to publish the name of the Lord, in Deut 32: 2, and David’s promised son to build a house for His name in 2Sam 7: 13, I, Derek West, the mustard seed, proves these facts from the Bible and further defines Christ’s identity as the Dove who rested and abode upon Jesus. If you mistake Him to be Jesus, as the uncircumcised Christian Church has so done historically, or to be the Father, or the Comforter (the Holy Spirit who was promised to come after both Jesus and Christ left), then you misidentify Christ, the God of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob. You mistake His identity. Again, Jesus, even if His name were pronounced as Yahshua, was not the God of Israel; He was gifted by Father to the World (see John 3: 16). To augment this explanation without too much detail, another aspect of Christ’s name must be added here: Both Jesus and Christ have been given power of attorney to represent the Father to fallen humanity; they are not God; they are His Sons. Each of those Sons pray to the Father; hence, the MSC has thwarted the charge of polytheism by showing that there is only one God. Undeniably then, today for one to address Christ as God or

Father, based upon Old-Testament declaration, without acceding to the fullness of His identity by explaining that which could not be explained yesterday to the OT Church, without explaining that He had Power of Attorney to represent Himself as the Highest or the Almighty so as to preclude Father from the inevitable tarnish which would have come had He personally took on the mission of our education, is to besmirch both His name and Father's name; it is to take it in vain.

In denunciation of my work, you say, "your doctrine that the Christ is the Dove...is not scriptural." My evidence is that such a claim by you ignores the careful revelations of His identity that are just now, at proverbial sunrise, being carefully unfolded. Do not say, "we don't need more details of His identity" for such a claim is, simply put, to also take the Lord's name in vain.

More BIBLE evidence that Christ's name describes the details of His identity and His personality are as follows:

- 1) "no man knoweth the Son...save...he to whomsoever the Son will reveal...learn of me; for I am meek and lowly in heart: and ye shall find rest unto your souls" —Matt 11: 27, 29.
- 2) "Praise ye the Lord...He hath made his wonderful works to be remembered...holy and reverend is his name." —Ps 111: 1, 4, 9.
- 3) "And he shall stand and feed in the strength of the Lord, in the majesty of the name of the Lord..." —Micah 5: 4.
- 4) "The Lord's voice crieth unto the city, and the man of wisdom shall see thy name: hear ye the rod, and who hath appointed it" —Micah 6: 9.
- 5) "O Jerusalem, Jerusalem, thou that killest the prophets...Behold, your house is left unto you desolate. For I say unto you, Ye shall not see me henceforth, till ye shall say, Blessed is he that cometh in the name of the Lord." —Matt 23: 37-39.
- 6) "Now therefore, what have I here, saith the Lord, that my people is taken away for nought? They that rule over them make them to howl, saith the Lord; and my name continually every day is blasphemed. Therefore my people shall know my name..." —Isa 52: 5, 6.

Just a short comment on the last of the above Texts: Here we see that the enemies of the sons of America's former slaves, sons AKA Israel, have blasphemed the Lord's name, not by errant pronunciation, but they have so done in their cruel oppression of them, AKA, Jerusalem: They made it appear that Christ was not the protector, the God, of Israel, that contrary to profession, He was not the God of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob forever. When He delivers them then this misnomer, this impeachment of His reputation will be reversed. Then will they know that He is the champion of their cause and the deliverer of His people from oppression. His intervention reveals His identity, His character, what He is like.

Finally, you accused me of being rude; in this accusation, I offer no denial. The Lord promised to send Elijah to judge; hence, you should not confuse this work that of Father's elected agent, Elijah, with Christ's work; for my work falls under a different aegis. If such was not the divine intent, then the Lord would not have promised the advent of Elijah but instead He would have promised the institution of His own judgment. Instead, He said, "Ye judge after the flesh; I judge no man" —John 8: 15. The world has rejected the Father's graces as manifested through Christ's ministry as He rested upon Jesus; accordingly, they are given one who exhibits less forbearance. Elijah is the symbol of my work exactly because of his rudeness and seemingly impetuous and capricious temperament when he judged Israel yesterday. For more of this read the following link, Elijah's Second Step.

Since you have no attachment to Adventism, I will offer no more evidence to respond to your communication. If you want clarity upon the Lord's identity, you have been given the reference material. May the Lord assist you to find the antidote of your mind-numbing and Insidious Mickey Drop.

Sincerely,

Derek
